The College saw many achievements and accomplishments in this academic year. All of this was possible only due to the tireless efforts, continuous support and encouragement of people around us. I am extremely grateful to the NAAC advisories, University authorities, Parents, Staff, Students and all our Well-wishers. As we proudly look back at the year gone by, we once again thank the Almighty for his blessings. Our aspiration to achieve many more laurels in the coming years gives us courage and determination to get better, think better and do better.
