NATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY

DATE: 24th February, 2020

DURATION: 2 hours

Beneficiary: Approx. 50 girls of Maher orphanage

Volunteers' participation: 50

Gender Equality is one of the prominent issues of importance that needs to be taken care of. It exists in several areas including legal rights, education, medical care, marriage etc. The basic objective behind celebrating the National Girl Child Day is to provide support and opportunities to the girls of India. NSS unit of Christ College is also determined to practice gender equality in every aspect. Therefore, the National Girl Child Day was celebrated along with cute little children in the Maher girl's orphanage. The smile on their faces to see volunteers come there for them was truly a very special feeling. The day was celebrated with volunteers singing songs for the girls and distributing sweets. Some girls recited their rhymes for us and that only strengthened the hope of equal education for all. Thus, the National Girl Child Day was happily celebrated with those kids who truly deserve moments of happiness more than anyone else.

Subject: Invitation to 'The Coco Weekend – a two-day community driven celebration about organic & sustainable lifestyles.'

Dear Rev. Soni

Greetings and Good Wishes!

Attaining a friendly and green environment has always been a great concern worldwide and research discloses that organic farming can partly offer a solution. Long term studies about organic agricultural practice reveal it can provide an impressive mechanism for promoting ecological harmony, biodiversity, and biological cycles which are vital for environmental sustainability.

To contribute in a small measure towards this cause, The Bishop's School, Camp, has formed the Bishop's Organic Farming Club (BOFC), which is active and has undertaken various projects within the school campus.

We are happy to announce that "THE COCO WEEKEND – a two-day community driven celebration about organic and sustainable lifestyles" in collaboration with the Bishop's Organic Farming Club, is being organized at The Bishop's School, Camp, on Saturday, 30th November and Sunday, 1st December 2019 from 10.30 am to 6.30 pm.

The highlights of the weekend is Panel discussion with experts, workshops and entertainment, the Coco Market and competitions. The keynote address will be given by Dr. Vandana Shiva, an Indian scholar, environmental activist, food sovereignty advocate, and anti-globalization author, on 30th November 2019 at 10.30 am.

We hereby extend our cordial invitation to your students (around 30 junior college students) and staff to attend this weekend programme, which will help to create an awareness about the organic farming and interest to undertake organic agricultural projects.

For further details of the programme, please feel free to contact: Ms. M Hora, Dean, Junior College, The Bishop's School, Pune, Cell No: 9503156953

DATE: 03nd October, 2019

DURATION: 2 hours

Beneficiary: 100

Volunteers' Participation: 50

Blood and blood cells are a very important part of the human body. The transportation of food and other essential nutrients to every part of the body is carried out by the blood. Therefore it is one of the most essential element of the human body. The act of donating blood has been very important in saving a life as per the health sector is concerned. To throw light on the importance of blood stem cell donation and its need and requirement in recent times, a team from Datri, a non-profit organization conducted a workshop in Christ College. This workshop was conducted for the entire college so that every student and staff member can understand the need and importance of Blood Stem Cell Donation. As of now, only 10 million people across the globe have voluntarily donated their blood stem cells out of which only 5.5 lakh people are from India. The session turned out to be quite helpful as around 85 students registered to donate their blood stem cells and even got a test done for further assessment.

Christ College in Pune and online blood stem cell donor database DATRI will collaborate to raise awareness of blood disorders such as blood cancers and thalassemia which require blood stem cell transplants.

"There are large [numbers] of patients suffering from blood cancer and thalassemia major among others for which the last resort is blood stem cell transplant," said Christ College coordinator Priya Wahab. "For patients who could not find a match within their family the only hope is registries like DATRI. We will support DATRI to help spread awareness and save lives of many such patients."

DATRI is the country's largest database of blood stem cell donors unrelated to recipients. Since being founded in 2009, it has registered more than four million donors credited with "[gifting]" 619 lives.

"DATRI is working towards creating a wide and diverse database of potential blood stem cell donors that can be accessed by any patient, living anywhere in the world, in need of a blood stem cell transplant," the organisation explains on its website. At the time it was founded, "it was almost impossible to find an unrelated donor for patients of Indian origin."

healthissuesindia.com/2019/10/08/datri-and-christ-college-to-raise-awareness-of-blood-diseases-in-pune/

"We will support the cause by conducting awareness for all students in every department," said Christ College principal Sony Chundattu. "The college will be doing multiple public drives and events like walkathons and marathons on important days to create awareness."

In India, blood disorders carry a huge toll. The country is home to the third largest number of haematological cancer cases in the world, those being cancers which affect the blood, bone marrow and lymph nodes. It also has a sizeable burden of thalassemia, to the extent it is regarded as the world's capital for the disease. More than forty million Indians test positive for thalassemia, of whom more than 100 000 die before the age of twenty. As such, efforts to raise awareness of the importance of blood stem cell transplants are welcome for the millions affected by them and their families.

"It is sad that even after every donor is being made aware the he or she would be the last hope of cure to a patient if found a match, there are still around forty percent back-outs from volunteer donors," said Wahab. "While for a patient that donor could be the only person in the world who could save his/her life. There is a dire need to spread awareness which will help save lives of thousands of patients."

Christ College to spread awareness about blood cancer, thalassemia

PUNE: Christ College in Pune has signed up a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with Datri, a blood stem cell donor registry, to work towards sensitising students about blood cancer and thalassemia.

"We will support the cause by conducting awareness for all students in every department. The college will be doing multiple public drives and events like walkathons and marathons on important days to create awareness," said Sony Chundattu, principal of Christ College.

Priya Wahab, coordinator, Christ College said, "There are large number of patients suffering from blood cancer and thalassemia major among others for which the last resort is blood stem cell transplant. For patients who could not find a match within their family the only hope is registries like Datri. We will support Datri to help spread awareness and save lives of many such patients."

Currently, a total 4,15,000 donors are registered with Datri as potential blood stem cell donors from Pune. These numbers are very less as compared to other cities in the country. "This definitely calls for more awareness in the state, about the importance of saving lives through blood stem cell donation for blood cancer patients," Wahab said.

"It is sad that even after every donor is being made aware the he or she would be the last hope of cure to a patient if found a match, there are still around 40% back-outs from volunteer donors. While for a patient that donor could be the only person in the world who could save his/her life. There is a dire need to spread awareness which will help save lives of thousands of patients," she said.

Typically, patients would first try to find a match within their family and there are 25% chances to find a match among family members. Else, they have to look out for a perfect match from a registry like Datri. As of today, the probability of finding a matched donor is only 1 in 10,000 to one in over a million, as the total number of volunteer donors registered are very low.

GANDHI JAYANTI- CLEANLINESS DRIVE

DATE: 02nd October, 2019

DURATION: 3 hours

Beneficiary: Local public residing near Mulamutha river bank

Volunteers' Participation: 25

02nd October 2019 marked a special occasion as it was the 150th anniversary of the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi. The principles and value put forth by Gandhiji has been variedly accepted and acknowledged in India as well as across the Globe. NSS too tries to incorporate these values and principles put forth by Gandhiji into its activities. Gandhiji always stressed upon the need and importance of a clean atmosphere and society. Following the similar principle, an NSS activity of a cleanliness drive was conducted throughout the city. Every college was given an area of the city wherein a cleanliness drive could be carried out. Christ College too participated in this drive and was allotted the Yerwada bridge and surrounding places. Volunteers went under the bridge on the banks of the river Mula – Mutha to clean the area. Lots of plastic and garbage was collected by volunteers and accumulated at one place so that it could be picked up easily. The activity indeed turned out to be successful as the officials were quite satisfied with the work of the volunteers.

TRAFFIC AWARENESS DRIVE

Volunteers' Participation: 50

It was a moment of pride and indeed a privilege for the entire management, staff and students of Christ College as Senior Police Inspector Mr. Yunus Shaikh, Police Sub Inspector Mr. Mane and Mr. Abbas Shaikh of Yerwada Police Station graced the college with their presence. The agenda behind this visit was to spread various social awareness among the staff and students of Christ College. Sir constantly repeated the importance of using helmets while riding. Fake messages spread over various social media platforms need to be analyzed and checked properly before drawing conclusions. Together we develop, keeping this in mind, Mr. Yunus Shaikh urged the students to spread awareness about the ill effects of drinking and smoking. Also, ragging in college or anywhere is a punishable offence and Sir mentioned about how strict actions can be taken against offenders. Finally, he wished students the very best for academics and bid adieu.
