1) Objective: CHRIST, at this moment, expresses its with to engage DSL, and DSL, at this moment, accepts to be engaged by CHRIST to work on providing "PRAVI" an online platform created and owned by DSL to students of CHRIST. PRAVI is aimed at improving students coding skills and programming logic.

DSL agrees to

a. Give students of CHRIST college access to PRAVI at subscription cost specified on the platform (Rs 300 for 90 days per track per student).

b. Providing access credentials to students to use the platform and admin credentials to college representatives for accessing and monitoring students progress.

c. Provide necessary training to students and faculty members to use the platform effectively.

d. Provide certificates to students upon successfully completion of different levels. Certificates should mention efforts of students in number of hours.

e. Sharing profiles of top performing students on the platform to DSL partner companies for placement support.

f. Not using email ids and phone number of students except for the purpose connected to the platform.
