PURPOSE

a) Sacred Heart College was one among the pioneers to seek assessment and accreditation by NAAC and was accredited with Five-Star status in 2000. In the subsequent accreditations the College was accorded A+ Grade in 2022 (IVth Cycle). The ability to strike a balance between the imparting of knowledge with the inclusive and holistic development of its students is what makes Sacred Heart College, Thevara one of the premier educational institutes of the country. What makes life at SH College meaningful and fulfilling is its diverse and vibrant student community, its faculty par excellence.

b) Sacred Heart College (Autonomous), Thevara, India is desirous to associate with St. Francis De Sales, on various areas discussed in the Purview of this MoU, which will be mutually beneficial to both organizations.

Whereas

c) Christ College, located on Pune, Maharashtra, was established in 2007. Currently graded with B+ grade by NAAC, the College is a CMI institution with the educational legacy of it founder St Kuriakose Elias Chavara. The college regards education as integral to the formation of the human person for the fulfillment of his/her individual and social responsibilities. The college aims at forming leaders who are intellectually competent, spiritually mature, morally upright, psychologically integrated, physically healthy and socially responsible, individuals who are open to grow and champion the cause of justice, love, truth and peace.

d) Christ College, is desirous to associate with Sacred Heart College (Autonomous), Thevara on various areas as discussed in the Purview of this MoU, which will be mutually beneficial to both organizations.
