About the International Conference:

An International conference on \

. Jointly organized by Foresight College of Commerce and Christ College, Pune. A great platform for the upcoming researchers, scholars, academicians to portray their ideas as well as to discuss the revolutionary changes occurring all over the modern business world. This conference aims at providing a platform to collate the research articles by participants through various disciplines such as Marketing, Management, Accounting and Financing, Law, General Management etc.

The international conference held on February 24th and 25th, 2023, was a resounding success, bringing together participants from various regions in India and esteemed international speakers. The event, hosted at Christ College Pune, created a platform for rich academic discussions, cultural exchanges, and networking opportunities.

One of the key factors contributing to the success of the conference was the diverse range of registrations. With 65 participants from all over India and international speakers, the event fostered a vibrant and inclusive atmosphere. This diversity not only enhanced the breadth of knowledge and perspectives shared but also facilitated cross-cultural understanding and collaboration.

The conference kicked off on the first day with a captivating prayer song, setting a positive and contemplative tone for the entire event. The welcome address by Dr. Geetha Rajan N, the conference coordinator, set the stage for the proceedings, outlining the goals and significance of the conference.

The inaugural session featured a remarkable line-up of speakers. Fr. Joy Puthusserry CMI delivered an inspiring inaugural speech, followed by the guest speaker, Dr. Mohd Faheem, who provided insights into the Thai economy. This combination of spirituality, academic discourse, and international perspectives created a dynamic and engaging start to the conference.

The presence of international guest speakers added a valuable global perspective to the conference. Prof. (Dr.) D.M.R. Dissanayake from the University of Kelaniya, Sri Lanka, shared valuable insights into the Sri Lankan tourism industry. Dr. Nishikant Borge's speech on globalization and geopolitical tensions provided an in-depth understanding of the complexities in international relations.

The technical sessions, held on both days, allowed participants to present their research, exchange ideas, and engage in scholarly discussions. These sessions showcased the depth of knowledge and expertise among the attendees, contributing to the academic richness of the conference.

The valedictory session provided an opportunity for reflection and feedback. Dr. Fr. Arun Antony Chully, the Director of Christ College Pune, and Dr. M D Lawrence, the Principal of Foresight College, shared their valuable inputs on the conference. The online and offline feedback from participants further enhanced the learning experience, enabling organizers to gauge the success of the event and identify areas for improvement.

The dedication and hard work of the conference coordinators, faculty members, and organizers played a pivotal role in ensuring the conference's success. Their meticulous planning, attention to detail, and commitment to providing a conducive environment for knowledge exchange and networking deserve recognition.

Conclusion:

The international conference held at Christ College Pune was a resounding success. Through its diverse participation, distinguished speakers, informative technical sessions, and engaging discussions, the event provided a platform for intellectual growth, cultural exchange, and collaboration. The conference served as a catalyst for expanding knowledge, fostering international connections, and inspiring future research endeavours.
